IN CONGRESS.

Urgency of Situation in Turkey Impressed Upon Senate.

Congress Asked to Stop the Most Appalling Sacrifice in World's History

Some Tariff Talk and Other Discussions of Interest Thursday.

WASHINGTON, April 9. In the Senate a letter from the general secretary of the Armenian relief association was read by Mr. Gallinger, of New Hampshire. It presents the extreme urgency of the situation in Turkey and asks that steps be taken to stop "the most appalling sacrifice in the history of the world." Mr. Gallinger expressed the hope that some means might be found to check the Turkish atrocities.

Mr. Frye, of Maine, chairman of the Committee on Commerce, gave notice that the committee would be in session tomorrow, Saturday and Monday, to hear any Senators who might desire to propose amendments to the river and harbor bill and that the committee would not hear any afterwards.

Mr. Mantle (Rep., Mont.) addressed the Senate in support of a resolution heretofore offered by his colleague, Mr. Carter, to recommit to the Finance Committee the House tariff bill, passed in the early days of the session. He spoke of the unwarranted aspersions cast by the metropolitan press on the Senators who favored silver coinage and who voted in opposition to that bill and he defended those Senators and the people of the silver States from the indiscriminate charges of selfishness and lack of patriotism brought against them.

He gave statistics to show the high condition of prosperity, morality and education in those States, as compared with States further east and he declared that in points of intelligence, morality, love of home, life, love of order, social status and civil and political organization, and in their unswerving love and devotion to everything purely American the people of the far western States were the peers of the people of any other section of the country.

Mr. Mantle argued against the Dingley bill.

Mr. Hawley (Rep., Conn.) said he had a few figures which proved Mr. Mantle was mistaken in supposing the wool manufacturers were benefited by the Wilson tariff bill. Importations of woolen manufactured goods into the United States for the current fiscal year, including January, amounted to over $48,000,000, as against $17,500,000 in the corresponding 7 months of last year. Many looms in New England woolen mills were idle and mills were running on reduced time. With the passage of the Wilson tariff law he said a cyclone had struck the woolen industry of New England.

After some further talk the matter went over. The Indian appropriation bill was considered and went over. The Senate passed all the private pension bills on the calendar, numbering 70.

Adjourned.

In the House.

The House resumed consideration of the bill to abolish the compulsory pilotage system, so far as it relates to sailing vessels engaged in the coastwise trade.

Mr. Cooper (Dem., Fla.) who prepared the views of the minority of the Committee on Merchant Marine and Fisheries in opposition to the bill, made the first speech.

The bill was advocated by Messrs. Perkins (Rep., Iowa), Fitzgerald (Dem., Mass.), Ellet (Dem., Va.), Dingley (Rep., Maine), and Payne (Rep., N. Y.), and antagonized by Grosvenor (Rep., Ohio), who stated that this Congress was not going to do anything for the laboring men of the country and he was sure it was not going to do anything that would add to their present condition of distress and discomfort. Messrs. Elliot (Dem., S. C.) and Tyler (Dem., Va.) also spoke in opposition to the bill.

The bill was defeated, 117 to 82. An effort to get a vote by yeas and nays was unsuccessful.

Mr. Grout (Rep., Vt.) called up the bill making appropriations for the District of Columbia.

The bill as amended, passed without division.

The Senate amendments to the post office appropriation bill were non-concurred in.

Mr. Grosvenor (Rep., O.) called up the bill defining cheese and providing for regulation of the trade in filled cheese, by imposing a tax upon its manufacture and sale. Mr. Cooke (Rep., Wis.) addressed the House in support of the bill.

A PARDON GRANTED

To O. F. Skillings, of Portland, by Governor and Council.

AUGUSTA, Me., April 9. At the meeting of Governor Cleaves and the council today regular nominations were confirmed. A pardon was granted O. F. Skillings, of Portland, under sentence of six years for alleged forgery in 1891. The case was a remarkable one. In that year Skillings is alleged to have forged the name of his father-in-law, one Capt. Sinnett, to a paper amounting to $425. Sinnett was the chief prosecutor and had had trouble with Skillings. The latter demurred the case and took a sentence of two years each on three counts. The mother of the prisoner, aged 72, was present at the hearing and was overcome with joy at her son's pardon, she being destitute and in much need of the support which he promises her. His record in prison is excellent. The pardon is generally regarded as most humane and commendable.

THE NAVAL BILL.

The Measure Reported to the Senate on Thursday.

The Four Sea Going Battleships Provided for By the House Unchanged.

Senate Committee Advocate Some Changes in Regard to Torpedo Boats.

WASHINGTON, April 9. The naval appropriation bill for the coming fiscal year was reported to the Senate today. The four sea going battleships authorized in the House bill are left untouched. Amendments have been made, however, in the provisions for torpedo boats. Instead of five capable of attaining a speed of 26 knots as provided by the House, the Senate has substituted three torpedo boats which will in reality be torpedo boat catchers, with a maximum speed of not less than thirty knots an hour.

In place of ten or more torpedo boats to cost not exceeding $800,000 and to have the highest practicable speed for vessels of their class, the Senate has substituted a provision for not to exceed ten torpedo boats, to cost in all, not exceeding $3,000,000 and to have the highest practicable speed for vessels of their class.

A proviso is also inserted as follows: "And not more than two of said battleships and not more than three of said torpedo boats shall be built in one yard or by one contracting party and in such case the contract shall be awarded by the Secretary of the Navy to the lowest responsible bidder."

The House provision requiring one of the battleships to be built on the Pacific coast is restricted by a provision that in order to do so it must be constructed at an additional cost not exceeding 5 per cent. of the lowest bid for the three other battleships authorized. The time within which the contracts for these vessels shall be made is extended from 90 to 120 days from the passage of the act.

The Bill Authorizes

the Secretary of the Navy to contract for the building of two submarine torpedo boats of the Holland type, at a cost not exceeding $175,000 each, these boats to be constructed and delivered within four months from the date of contract, provided that the Holland boat now being built for the department shall be accepted as fulfilling all the requirements of the contract, no action shall be taken until the Holland boat now being built shall have been fully tested to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Navy and accepted.

An amendment empowers the Secretary of the Navy to cause one of the six light draught composite gunboats authorized by the naval bill for the current fiscal year to be built and furnished for a training ship for the use of the Annapolis academy.

Among the important additions to the bill is the following: For testing methods of throwing high explosives from guns on board ships with ordinary velocities, $50,000, to the appropriation of $250,000 for reserve guns for auxiliary cruisers is added the proviso that the Secretary of the Navy may in his discretion purchase by contract all or any part of such guns.

The appropriation of $7,500 for preliminary work towards the construction of a "model tank for the use of the bureau of construction and repairs is stricken out and a number of provisions in the House bill relative to the marine corps have been eliminated from the bill as reported to the Senate, among the more important being the following: Pay of ten sergeants, forty corporals, 12 drummers, 12 fifers, 426 privates to be enlisted in accordance with the existing law and appropriations, for their provisions and clothing $71,060. The bill as reported by the committee carries a total net reduction of $367,797. The House appropriated $11,647,249 and this is reduced by the Senate to $11,279,482.

The seventh and last round was a hot one, but McAuliffe out-fought Pigeon and beat him so badly it was some minutes before he came to.

A FALSE DIAGNOSIS.

La Grippe is confounded by many persons with a severe attack of catarrh, which in some respects resembles the former. These individuals suffer severely with pain about the forehead, eyes and ears, with soreness in throat and stoppage of the nasal passages, and in fact, are incapacitated for work of any kind for days at a time. These are catarrhal sufferers. Ely's Cream Balm has been used with the best results in such cases. The remedy will give instant relief.

VIGOROUS WORK

WASHINGTON, April 9. Mr. Mallette, Provost had a conference at the Venezuelan legation with Minister Andrade relative to the translation and printing of documents recently received by Mr. Andrade on the subject of the boundary dispute between Venezuela and British Guiana. Owing to the fact that it was not yet possible to make and print translations of these documents they had not formerly been presented to the commission. It is the intention of Mr. Andrade to submit both the original documents and printed translations as soon as they can be prepared. The translation of these documents will necessarily occupy some weeks as the interpretation of technical language used for legal documents in the sixteenth, seventeenth and eighteenth centuries in which they reconciled, requires more than ordinary skill and care.

Mr. Andrade states that in the course of two or three weeks he expects to receive from the Venezuelan legation at the Hague and Madrid copies of further documents which agents of his government have been engaged in collecting at those places. Pending the arrival of these papers and the translation of those already here the commission is vigorously prosecuting the work of inquiry along independent lines and has abundant material to work upon for some weeks to come.

AN ERROR

Causes Trouble in a Murder Trial.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., April 9. Joseph Colomb a woodchopper, is today on trial in the superior court for murder in the first degree. He is charged with having killed his wife July 16. Colomb, it is said had been drinking heavily for several days before the murder. On the evening of July 16 he came home in a state of intoxication. He found two men and a woman in the house with his wife and accused her of unfaithfulness. She resented this and Colomb got a rifle. He used the weapon as a club and beat the woman until the stock was broken off and the barrel bent. Colomb afterwards treated the unfortunate woman in a horrible manner and from the wounds received she died two days later.

The twelfth juror was secured about 3. Then it was discovered that the indictment charged Colomb with having committed the murder in Bethany, in the town of Derby. These places are separate and distinct towns and the blunder stopped proceedings altogether. The State attorney said this afternoon that the error would probably necessitate Colomb's appearance before the grand jury a second time.

Marvelous Results

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at Ryes Junction she was brought down with Pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at Arn Warren's Drug Store. Regular size 50c. and $1.00.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed in the Spring, when the languid, exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, Indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. Only fifty cents per bottle at Arn Warren's Drug Store.

WORK GOING ON.

Mrs. Barton's Successful Efforts for the Armenians.

The Relief Work Is Now Fully Established According to Her Advices.

The Suffering Is Intense and Many Despondent Ones Turn to Suicide.

BOSTON, April 9. Notwithstanding rumors to the contrary, Miss Clara Barton cables the New England Armenian relief committee of Boston, of her successful work as follows: "News from expeditions just received, proves that our relief work is firmly established. In no manner do the authorities endeavor to control our actions. The caravans divided at Aintab one for Oorfa Diibeker, Harpoot the other for Marash Zeitoun, Malatia and Harpoot and are relieving towns and villages en route. Our doctors, medical supplies sailed via Beyrouth Friday, eight days to Marash. The epidemic is still raging."

The latest reports received by the committee state that the suffering is intense, and many in their despondency are driven to suicide. The committee say it is hoped in this great need that funds will continue to come in as fast as possible. care of Brown Brothers & Co., 60 State street, Boston.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

Majority Report Favor Raising of Gen. Miles' Rank.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 9. Mr. Hull (Iowa), chairman of the House Military Committee, filed today a majority report on the Hardy joint resolution which promotes Major General Miles to Lieutenant General. The report refers to the action of Congress in conferring this grade upon Major General Scholfield and states that the army since 1815 has been almost continuously commanded by either lieutenant generals, or full generals and the pending measure will not increase the number of general officers. The resolution was introduced, the report declares, in response to a widespread demand from various organizations of men more or less closely identified with the volunteer army of the late war.

Copious as is the official record of General Miles' services to his country it continues, there is not upon it a single blot nor a line which will not bear the closest scrutiny. It is not on record that Gen. Miles ever fell short of expectation but he often so far surpassed it as to call forth expressions of unstinted praise. The report sketches his career from his first enlistment in the army to the present period and asserts that his successive promotions from the rank of lieutenant to that of major general of volunteers was in response to a demand on the part of his superior officers who personally witnessed his deeds of valor on the field. It shows that he was engaged in every battle of the Army of the Potomac with one exception, and was then absent on account of wounds received in battle. He was four times wounded, thrice badly.

His services during the reconstruction period in the south as well as the duty performed by him subsequently in the West is favorably commented upon and high praise is accorded him for administrative, judicial and executive ability displayed by him. The report in conclusion states that the committee deems the rank of Lieutenant General a most appropriate title for the general commanding the army in a nation of this magnitude.

Foreign Affairs Committee Work.

The House Committee on Foreign Affairs today instructed Chairman Hitt to report with recommendation that it be passed the resolution asking the Secretary of State to report to the House what facts are in the possession of the department relating to the case of Mrs. Florence L. Mrs. Maybrick is in prison in England under a life sentence upon conviction of the charge of poisoning her husband a merchant of Liverpool.

Statehood Bills in Committee.

In the Territories Committee today Mr. Hadley prevented a favorable report on the Arizona bill. Mr. Hadley stated that his action in voting to admit the territory would be based upon the ratio of population. As Arizona did not have in his opinion the number of inhabitants requisite for statehood, he would be compelled to vote against it. Under these circumstances Mr. Murphy, a delegate from Arizona, deemed it advisable not to press the matter further at today's meeting.

Upon motion of Mr. Caton, a delegate from New Mexico the Arizona bill was laid aside and the New Mexico bill taken up. This proposition was carried 6 to 4.

Louisiana Outrages.

When the Elections bill was under discussion in Congress the Southern Democrats declared that a force bill was unnecessary as all fair elections could be carried by the votes of Democratic voters. The same assertion is now getting ready from Democratic headquarters in Louisiana this month, but a preliminary step have been taken to secure a Democratic majority in the returning board and well mounted guards surrounding the registration office and ordinary business men of the city have been informed that they must bring two cannon with them. The purpose of this warlike exhibition is of course to intimidate the Congress. There has been a split in the Democratic ranks by reason of the [illegible] stupidity of the party at Washington and the election of last fall. The party insist that there shall be a choice between which shall include the right to vote. The Louisiana Democrats have [illegible] and the Democratic party is responsible and will have to answer to the American people for its disastrous attack upon home industries. The Democratic papers like the Herald which are seeking to avert the blow may be applauded for their partisan zeal, but they show mighty poor judgment.

Who Gets the Profit?

The Textile Manufacturers' Review after pointing out that the Democratic tariff has been of no advantage to the American manufacturer or consumer, wants to know who gets the profits. It says:

It would be interesting to know in view of the recent developments regarding poor business, short time and shut downs among the woolen and worsted mills, just who is profiting by the excessive foreign competition. It is certainly not the domestic manufacturers; and buyers of men's and boys' clothing, either custom or ready made, find no substantial reduction of prices on standard goods since the Wilson bill went into effect. We have before us the price list of a large firm of clothiers who, as long ago as 1880, put out as a special feature the offer of a first-class men's black cheviot suit, tailor cut, made and trimmed for $10. To-day the price is precisely the same, and it may be added that it was so during the McKinley years and the "McKinley prices" which have intervened. The same is true of boys' clothing.

Where then, it may be asked, have free wool and lower duties benefited the consumer? Woolen and worsted mills do not find disastrous competition so much in the low prices of staple goods, but rather in low stock employed in fabrics which imitate them. There is no doubt that buyers are taking a lower class of goods than formerly, quality being a secondary consideration. Just the reverse should have followed the advent of free wool and the reduced advalorem duties on manufactures of wool. In the demand for lower grades and lower priced woolens it is clearly to be seen that the purchasing capacity of the masses is not what it was a few years ago. As wages can never rise above the level of its source, it is equally clear that the wages of industry must be higher in value and larger in volume before any great improvement will be observed.

The profits in this case seem to be going to the foreign manufacturer. He now has the double advantage of lower wages and reduced duties. It costs him less to manufacture his goods and favored as he is by the existing tariff he can undersell the American manufacturer in our own market. There is no gain from the Wilson law to the domestic manufacturer, because the American wage rate prevents him from meeting the foreign cost of production. Therefore he goes entirely or partially out of business. There is no gain to the American work ngman because his wages are reduced or cut off in whole so that, no matter what the price of clothes is, he cannot afford to buy them. There is no gain to whatever consumer may be able to buy what he needs, because he gets an inferior article. There is no gain to the whole people, because the aggregate wealth of the country is diminished and the American market is narrowed for lack of purchasing power.

Fourth District

[Eastport Sentinel]

It is very gratifying to the friends of Hon C A Boutelle to know that no one will compete with him for the nomination at the Congressional Convention to be held at Bangor on Wednesday, April 15th. Mr Boutelle has steadily grown in the favor of his constituents since his first election and this has not been the result of political manipulation by him or his friends. He has proved himself of great value to his constituents by his untiring efforts for their interests, and by his steadily increasing influence in Congress and to day he is entitled to his full share of the honor which the Maine delegation in both branches of Congress hold of being the ablest and most influential delegation from any State.

Congress and Cuba

If Cuban campaign in Congress is ended last. Both Houses have adopted by overwhelming majorities the concurrent resolutions in favor of recognizing the belligerency of the insurgents and of aiding Spain to grant them independence. This result was foreseen long ago. It has been fully discounted. Accordingly it will not excite either here or elsewhere a tithe of the interest and excitement that were caused by the introduction of the resolutions. We have always regarded the whole business as a mistake. But the most of the evil was done at the outset. More might have been done if Congress had continued to devote its attention to this, instead of to American affairs. The conclusion of the incident is therefore a matter for some rejoicing. Congress will now have a chance to transact the business of the United States and adjourn in good season. Some other disposition of the resolutions would have been preferable, but it was perhaps better for them to be adopted than to be kept pending indefinitely for waste of time and irritation of spirit.

The first resolution expresses the opinion that Cuban belligerency should be recognized by this Government. That, if put into effect by the Executive, would probably have the very opposite result from that intended. It would injure the patriot cause. It would make it far more difficult for them to get arms ammunition and reinforcements from this country. It would have made it almost impossible for example for the Bermuda to get off and to land her precious cargo as she did. The moral effect of it might be of some little value to the Cuban cause. The legal effect of it would be of far greater injury. As to the second resolution it is purely and simply abusive to Spain and nothing more. No one dreams that Spain would ever accept our tender of friendly offices for the independence of Cuba. It would resent it in the strongest possible manner, and would redouble her efforts to defeat and crush the patriots. So both the resolutions are mal droit.

A Pea Shooting Critic

[Buffalo Journal]

The chronic attacks of our esteemed local contemporary upon Congressman Boutelle reminds us of an incident of the far west. An innocent tenderfoot had strayed into the wilds, armed with one of the little pepper box revolvers which carry a ball about the size of an early pea. One day he was accosted by a veteran cow puncher, as follows: "Look a here young feller, if you ever shoot me with that thing and I findjit out I'll mop the earth with yer."

Items of Interest!

We don't propose going into a long and elaborate editorial on these items. No need of it—they speak for themselves. They are just what every lady needs at this time of year and the prices speak more eloquently by far than any mere words could do.

STRONG ENDORSEMENT

FROM HON C A BAILEY, COUNTY ATTORNEY OF PENOBSCOT COUNTY

BANGOR, March 28 1896

Mr H J Bantop

Dear Sir I took with me last fall on an outing trip a bottle of Columbian Anodyne Liniment and found it a prompt remedy for a cold resulting from exposure. On the same trip I came upon an inhabited camp remote from any settlement, where a woman was suffering from internal cramp or colic. Your liniment relieved her and she wanted to buy a bottle of me. Not being a licensed peddler and having no stock, the best I could do was to give her what was left of my supply, for which she seemed very grateful. It has since been used in my family for bruises, wounds and external application otherwise and found to be very effective. My son, who is a college foot ball player, pronounces it "great" for contusions, wrenches, sprains and all injuries incident to that rigorous game.

Very truly yours

CHAOS AT COREA.

Dissensions in Cabinet Grow More Prominent.

Vancouver B C April 9—Advices from Tokio to March 29 as follows: At the capital of Korea things are still in chaos. Dissensions in the new cabinet it is said have grown more prominent. It is believed that Kuroki ing minister will sever the connection with the cabinet shortly.

Since the assassination of the queen a worthy successor to her has appeared in the person of Lady Ou Sang who it is said enjoys great favor with the king and to have that weak ruler under such control that of his late consort. While the queen lived the jealousy of Lady Ou Sang to remain aloof from the court. Lady Ou Sang favored the Russian ministers and now dictates his actions from behind the curtain.

At what time the Japanese will return to the palace is still in doubt. The movement from the Russian legation is ordered to be carried out.

The Russians have assumed supremacy in the Orient and it is believed that it was agreed in Moscow that Japan can shape its policy in Corea without interference from Russia.

Hostilities between Japan and the Corean insurgents have ceased, it is said, and it is believed that peace will soon be restored.

Reports from Japan relative to the Corean troubles are conflicting. Some say that the Japanese have been driven out of Corea with great loss of life, while others say that the Japanese have defeated the Coreans in every engagement and have captured the capital. The latest reports from Japan are to the effect that the Japanese have been victorious in all the fights with the insurgents and that peace will be restored shortly.

Springfield Mass April 9 [illegible] sons of the New England Conference [illegible] by Rev Joseph Scott of Auburn. [illegible] Wesleyan University. Dr Spencer of Dr Bolles district of the Methodist church.

These men were excellent illustrations of the [illegible] Bishop Foss's address. [illegible] Dalls Sun Stories of Colorado, Rev Smith of Chester Hill, Dana, Revs Harry C. Butler of West Medford, Clement of East Boston and Lyndon A Smith of Lynn. Bishop Foss the speaker of the evening, on the subject "The Model Minister."

He said: He is one who is true to himself, to every sense of the word. He must be a man of prayer, one mighty with God. He must be a man of power, filled with the Holy Ghost. He must be a man of Christ-like sympathy and gentleness. He must feel the burden of souls around him. He must use the pulpit as a source of instruction from his daily intercourse with the people. He must be a man of good address, quick to listen and slow to talk. He must be a man of broad culture. He must be a man of power.

Neither the press nor anything else will lower the standard of the pulpit unless the minister himself does it. He must keep ahead of his people in the things which he can do by culture and [illegible] of self and the study of the word of God. Give little time to the papers and magazines except to follow the big lines of the day and study the Bible much.

Arrange each sermon carefully. Let each young man follow these five rules: speak to be heard and to the last man; make out your case like a lawyer; exhaust the importance of it and never imagine it; keep aloof but by living with them.

At noon the conference adjourned to Wilbraham where speeches were made in the old church [illegible] years ago the first New England conference was held. The speakers were W F Warren S F Upham C F Rice and W F Pratt.

HESITATE NO LONGER.

Women have suffered fearfully because of over-sensitiveness in this direction. They couldn't say to the physician what they ought to say to someone. Mrs. Pinkham has received the confidence of thousands. Women open their hearts to her. She understands their suffering, and has the power to relieve and cure.

In nearly all cases the source of women's suffering is in the womb. If such cases the able physician does not understand the case and treats the patient for consumption, indigestion or anything but the right thing.

It is under such circumstances that the words of women have turned to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., and opened their heart and lives—woman to woman—and received her help.

Ask her how she can tell if the doctor can help. Because no man living ever treated so many cases and possesses such vast experience.

Disarrangement, inflammation, torpid action, stagnation, sends to all parts of the body the pains that crush you. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the sure cure for this trouble. For twenty years it has done its grand work and cured thousands.

The steamer Sedgwick goes on the Bar Harbor route for the spring service Saturday, Capt. George H. Barbour, of this city, commanding her as usual. She will for the present make two trips per week, leaving from Winterport until the ice permits her to start from Bangor.

Miss E. M. Jones' millinery opening begins to-day and her handsome new store will doubtless be visited by all the ladies who will wish to inspect her large stock of spring and summer millinery. Miss Jones has lately returned from Boston where she personally selected her goods and she has a beautiful stock.

There have been shipped from the United States fish hatchery at Greene Lake this spring 25,000 trout eggs to New Hampshire, 40,000 to the Maine commissioners, 10,000 to Washington, D. C., 12,000 to Ohio, 10,000 to Rhode Island, 10,000 to Vermont, and one case of salmon eggs each to New Jersey and New York.

The work of laying the hardwood floor in the aldermen's and treasurer's rooms at City Hall, was commenced yesterday morning, by Contractor James D. Smith, who was the lowest bidder for the job. The desks for the aldermen have been ordered through the Preble Furniture Co., of Bangor and are expected to arrive by the latter part of the month so as to be used at the next regular meeting of the council.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph D. French, of Brewer, celebrated their golden wedding Wednesday at their home. About fifty neighbors and friends were present at the happy event and extended their hearty congratulations. Numerous gifts including a goodly number of gold coins were bestowed upon Mr. and Mrs. French. Delicious refreshments were served during the evening and songs and remarks from those present added to the pleasure of the occasion.

Quite a movement is on foot for the establishment of a free public library in Brewer and already more than $300 has been secured for this object. One gentleman has offered to contribute $100 and many others have subscribed smaller sums, and there is also a fund of $180 raised by the King's Daughters for this purpose. It is hoped that the City Council will make an appropriation for it and this will bring also a certain sum from the State. Individual subscriptions are asked for and it is hoped that all will give freely for this beneficial object. Those who are pushing the matter will try to raise in all $1,000, and if this can be done a library will be assured.

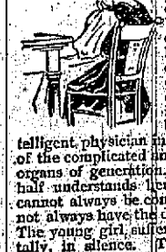
Capital Punishment In Calabar.

The famous Calabar bean is said to be worse than strychnine. The natives use it for an ordeal. If a person is accused of a crime, he is made to eat one, being adjudged to be guilty in case of death, which is almost inevitable. Another seed employed for a like purpose is that of the ordeal tree of Madagascar, said to be the most deadly of vegetable products. One of these seeds about the size of an almond will kill 20 men.

Forever from the hand that takes one blessing from us others fall, and soon or late our Father makes his perfect recompense to all.—Whittier.

A great many flowers close at night. The marigold shuts up at sundown and remains closed until morning.



Who does not know women and young girls who are continually in tears? Who always see the dark side? Who have frequent fits of melancholy without any apparent cause? But there is a cause. It is to be found by the intelligent physician in some derangement of the complicated and delicate feminine organs of generation. The woman who half understands herself, feels that she cannot always be complaining; she cannot always have the doctor in the house. The young girl suffers, bodily and mentally, in silence. The trouble usually comes so gradually it is attributed to some outside cause. There is undue weariness, unexpected pain, unreasonable tears and fits of temper. All these symptoms are simply protests of the silent, long-suffering nerves. The trouble shows in dark circles below the eyes, a downward curve of the mouth, a sallow, brownish-yellow neck.

Unregarded, the trouble grows. A few years of tortured invalidism, probably insanity, before merciful death comes. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the fruit of years of study. It is the product of an investigating mind united with a generous nature. When an intelligent person gives years of study to a subject there must be some good result. The "Favorite Prescription" is a compound of extracts of herbs that makes a strengthening, soothing medicine. It acts directly upon the distinctly feminine organs. It stops drains from lining membranes by healing diseased parts, thereby curing also the inflammation that is always present.

"I was in a critical condition. Often I was in despair. I experienced great improvement by taking one bottle of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I have taken six bottles, and I am sure that it will not only cure alceration but all diseases of females." Yours truly.

HORRIBLE TRAGEDY

On Boston Street, Salem, Thursday Morning.

James Flynn Puts Bullet Through Miss Manning's Head and then Suicides.

Salem, Mass., April 9.—There was a double tragedy at the house numbered 122 Boston street, this morning. At 4.20 people living up stairs in the house smelled smoke and going to a room occupied by Miss Josephine Manning forced an entrance and found the bed on fire, and the room filled with smoke.

Across the foot of the bed a man was lying fully dressed and just gasping for breath. He was taken out but died before medical help arrived. In the bed Miss Manning lay dead her head covered with blood from a wound. The family up stairs reported that they heard three pistol shots an hour previous and an examination showed that the woman had two pistol wounds in her head.

The man who was James F. Flynn also had a bullet wound in his head. An examination of the premises revealed a watch, revolver, pocket book and a pack of cards on the bed. Flynn was a widower, about 35 years old and had been keeping company with the Manning woman, who was a dress maker, and about 28 years of age.

It is supposed that he killed the girl and then committed suicide. He was dressed in his working clothes and no one could tell when he went to the house, nor was anything known as to the cause of the shooting. Both bodies were somewhat scorched but only the bed in the room was burned.

It is evident that the powder from the revolver had set fire to the bed quilt.

Medical Examiner Carleton was called and viewed the bodies, after which he ordered them taken to undertaking rooms where he and other doctors performed the autopsy.

Flynn was a manufacturer of innersoles, shoe findings, etc., his shop being on Irving street.

A short time ago he was in business with A. D. Osgood in Peabody. He had been residing with his mother and sister and his children, of whom there are three, on Irving street. His wife died two or three years ago. He was very well known and had been considered for years an honorable business man.

Miss Manning's reputation was of the best. She moved in excellent social circles and was always prominent at Salem affairs. Her cousin is Councilman Barnett, one of the leading grocers of Salem, probably the largest in his section of the city.

She held only a small number of gentleman acquaintances and comparatively few knew of her intimacy with Flynn, those who did supposing that they were to be married in a few months.

Flynn's friends believe that the cause of the tragedy was not jealousy so much as drunken rage. It seems that he and Miss Manning had arranged to go to a ball in Salem last evening and she was ready and waiting for him early in the evening.

He did not appear until about 9 o'clock and then he was not in a condition to go to a party. He had on his working clothes and had not been cleanly shaven and was somewhat under the influence of liquor. A quarrel ensued.

Flynn vanished in Miss Manning's rooms a few minutes and then went away. Miss Manning going to the house of her aunt, Mrs. Hartnett, across the street and telling of the trouble she had with him. She went home shortly after 10.

There is no doubt that she retired at once and that it was several hours later when Flynn got into the house.

Later—Regarding the Boston street murder and suicide it is learned that Flynn had been drinking heavily of late and was not considered as being all right mentally by some of his intimate friends. A few days ago he threatened an intimate friend that he would kill him but the latter laughed the matter off.

Flynn declared that he would commit suicide. Yesterday he had been drinking and was put out of a saloon for creating a disturbance. No one can tell when he went to Miss Manning's room, as the latest hour at which he was seen alive by anyone who has yet come forward was 10.30 o'clock.

Miss Manning at that time was at the house of a relative on the same street. It is stated that she had told others that she had about decided to break up the intimacy between Flynn and herself and this may have been the cause of the trouble, although no person will ever know what transpired in the room before the shooting.

Danvers, Mass. April 9.—Jessie Manning, who was shot in Salem this morning by James Flynn was the daughter of Michael Manning, a Topsfield farmer and was of a respectable family. Her sister Mary, is employed in Danvers. The family scarcely knew Flynn and can give no cause for the act. The people are well spoken of in Topsfield.

Joint Resolution Concerning Northern Pacific.

Washington, April 9.—The Northern Pacific railroad which will in the near future be sold at foreclosure sale, is the subject of a joint resolution introduced in the Senate yesterday by Senator Mitchell of Oregon. Their motion is quite voluminous and is intended to facilitate the reorganization of the Northern Pacific system and to secure to the settlers along that line, the right to purchase at a price, not exceeding $2.50 per acre, the agricultural lands within its grant. It also prohibits the present company, the purchaser under the foreclosure or any other person who may become its owner, from giving by consolidation, sale, or other corporate action, control of its railroad to any corporation, company, person or association of persons owning, operating or controlling a parallel or competing road.

COTTON MULE SPINNERS' Convention Closes after Successful Sessions.

BOSTON, April 9. The Convention of Cotton Mule Spinners was ended at noon to-day, after five successful sessions. DYING OF HUNGER.

Much Suffering in and Around Bitlis.

Relief Work Must Continue Another Month and Funds are Needed.

Boston, April 9.—Letters received in Boston state that there is much suffering in all the regions about as well as in Bitlis, Eastern Turkey, some having died from hunger and exposure in the provinces while others have been killed if they did not surrender their faith.

"One Armenian, a member of the church at Aghagh, has been killed and his family, wife and three children, have been left in the hands of the Moslems.

Fifteen hundred dollars has been sent on from England but is nearly all expended and more relief funds are needed. The relief work in Erzeroom, Eastern Turkey, grows. Assistance is given to 20,000 to 25,000 people. More than half of the Armenian population of the province is in extreme destitution. There must be at least 70,000 people in the province in distress. The emigration to Russia continues and the distress continues.

"This need will not pass for a long time. This relief must be kept up for a month at least. The outlook is still very cloudy. The attitude of the Turks keeps the Armenians in terror and every body is waiting for spring in the deepest anxiety.

"The government gives indication that it intends to do something to keep the country tranquil. It will have its hands full. In Harpoot, Eastern Turkey, the relief work has reached 40,000 people. New villages crop up almost every day, villages never heard of before. Great caution is used to keep people off the list who can possibly get other means to live.

Both the Gregorian priests in Hoech were killed and until March they have been without a service of any kind. The protestant buildings are all gone and the Gregorians joined the protestants in wishing that their church and school might be used altogether and Bedros Varrshed has requested that they may be used together.

"A good part of the village are now in Inezerun and other places. The past few days a letter dated March 7th has witnessed quite an increase in the fear and anxiety of the people.

"The Armenians, of course, are extremely timid and the attitude of the Turks has been such as to increase their alarm. Disorders abound in the village and the government is said to be extremely inefficient. Frank H. Wiggin, 1 Somerset street, Boston, will continue to forward funds as received to the international relief committee in Constantinople.

FIRE RECORD.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., April 9. Fire in the Rhode Island Brewing Company's brewery early this morning caused a loss that may reach $30,000 or $30,000.

FATALLY INJURED

By Being Thrown from a Wagon.

LOWELL, Mass., April 9. John O'Hare, a member of Hose 11, was fatally injured by being thrown from a wagon while going to a fire at five o'clock this morning. He died at St. John's Hospital about one o'clock this afternoon.

A HARVARD GRADUATE

To be Court Martialed for Desertion from Regular Army.

NEW YORK, April 9. A special to the World from Portland, Oregon, says: Private Frank J. Affleck, a Harvard graduate, is to be court martialed at Vancouver barracks next week for desertion from the regular army while at Fort Boise. In addition to desertion the young man is accused of stealing a quantity of small arms from officers at the fort. He is alleged to have taken them as souvenirs of his army life.

Affleck has given considerable trouble since his incarceration. A few days after he was sent there from Portland he made an effort to gain his liberty by cutting his way through a bath room. On the following day he made a rope of his blankets and tried to hang himself. He was cut down just in time. He wore a straight jacket two days when, upon his promise to behave himself, he was released. Since then he has been heavily chained. Before enlisting in the cavalry company at Fort Boise, Affleck squandered $10,000 here.

Of Murdering Three of the Smith Family at Tallmadge, O.

AKRON, O., April 9. John Smith, formerly the hired man of the Stone family, three members of which were murdered ten days ago at Tallmadge, was arrested last night and brought to this city. He has confessed that he committed the crime.

Thursday's conference meetings opened at 9 A. M., Bishop Merrill presiding. Reports of Presiding Elders Lapham, of the Augusta District, Palmer, of the Portland District, and Corey, of the Lewiston District, were read and approved. No charges were made against ministers in either districts.

THE FLY IN AMBER.

In one of the European Museums may be seen a piece of amber, in which is deeply embedded a perfect fly. Now, neither the amber nor the fly are curiosities, but the curiosity consists in how the fly got into the amber. An equally wonderful curiosity may occasionally be seen in country drug stores, in the shape of huge drastic cathartic pills, put up in cheap wood or pasteboard boxes. The curiosity with these "jokers" consists in knowing who asks for them, when it is generally known that Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, sugar-coated, and put up in glass bottles, always fresh and reliable, but little larger than mustard seeds, are an efficient cathartic, regulate the liver, and cure sick headache, constipation and dyspepsia.

Rev. Richard Owen, pastor of the Bar Harbor Congregational church, returned Saturday night from his trip to Europe looking much refreshed and rested. A number of his parishioners met him at the wharf and cordially greeted him. Rev. Mr. Owen intends to give several sermons descriptive of his trip abroad which no doubt will be very interesting.

Bar Harbor Record: Although lobsters are quoted at from 20 to 25 cents a pound in the market and the supply is very limited, there are millions of them in the weir at Bar Island, but they are scarcely fit to eat just yet, for the largest is not an inch long. Men at work on repairing the weir for the spring were surprised one day to see a curious mass of minute objects on the weir poles. They covered everything and the pools of water were alive with them. Under the microscope they proved to be lobster spawn and an examination showed each to be a perfectly formed miniature lobster. It is rather odd to find such a mass of lobster spawn in one place after the recession of the tide. They were probably brought in from the Atlantic from some immense lobster bed. These youthful lobsters are the daintiest food for the fish of the ocean and the lobster which arrives at the age to be fit for the table may be said to be the survivors of the fishes.

The trustees of the Northport Campground Association will hold a meeting in April to decide when the regular campmeeting session will be held and to act upon other matters relating to the association. M. G. Hill, who has run the hotel for several years, will not in all probability have the house this year. It is not yet known who will have the hotel the coming summer. One matter of interest which will be discussed will relate to the Chautauquan assembly. It is well-known that the eight day session of the assembly last year, while a success from a literary point of view, was not a success financially. There may, however, be a short Chautauquan assembly this year. The Elwell farm owned by the association, has been sold and the proceeds applied to the corporation. The outlook for the campground from the present standpoint is good.

THE ROENTGEN RAYS.

A Theory that they are Due to Sound Vibrations.

Mr. Edison, in an article which he has contributed to the current number of "The Electrical Engineer," has added yet another to the many hypotheses which have been brought forward to account for the action of the X rays. Briefly, Mr. Edison's theory is that the phenomenon is due to sound vibrations. Mr. Edison gives his reasons for this proposition in part as follows:

Further experiments with the Roentgen ray have developed some new phenomena which may aid in explaining the mode of transmission. In studying various photographs taken in the last month there were certain features which were difficult of explanation except on the theory that the X ray was a sound wave of very small wave length, and that the shadows were sound shadows, the peculiarities of which are known, one of the best illustrations being the experiments of Le Conte in the Bay of San Francisco, published in "The Philosophical Magazine," February, 1881.

I therefore conducted a number of experiments with this theory in mind.

The fluorescent bulb was placed on one side of a steel plate, the observer being on the opposite side. When the fluoroscope was placed against the steel plate directly opposite the bulb on the other side, no light was observed; but when the fluoroscope was made to approach within six inches of the edge and well within the shadows it lighted up. The direction of the X ray was found by a moving bar of iron, so as to obtain the sharpest image.

The second fact which possibly tends to confirm the sound wave theory is that liquids do not fluoresce with the ray, at least none that I have tried. Crystals alone fluoresce, except in one or two cases, such as precipitates, and these may not be amorphous. The crystal is resonant to the wave.

The third observation is that a tube with a vacuum so low as to give streamer and from which ordinarily no X ray can be obtained, no matter how long a dry plate is exposed to it, can be made to give the ray by a powerful blast of air on the spark of the break wheel of the primary and a spark gap in the secondary, the wires of which are guarded up to the very end.

Another observation is that the sharpness of the shadow depends on the abruptness of the break. A very weak bulb may be made to give sharper shadows than one giving twice the luminosity in the fluoroscope, which has a connection with this theory. Another fact is that when tubes are on the pump continuously, the vacuum will depend upon the pump, that is, the amount of mercury running per minute. The vacuum will reach a certain stage and keep that way for several days, the pump being able to reach a certain exhaustion, and no further, the air brought in by the mercury being the limiting point.

CITY AND VICINITY.

STATE OF MAINE.

By Henry B. Cleaves, Governor.

A PROCLAMATION.

By the advice of the Executive Council, THURSDAY, the twenty-third day of April, is designated as a day of Fasting and Prayer.

The Christian people of our State, during its long and brilliant history, have cherished and been accustomed to observe this day, by abstaining from all unnecessary labor, and invoking, amid the surroundings of the home and in places of public worship, the blessings of Heaven upon our Country, our State and her institutions; and by inculcating the principles of righteousness, of truth, of amity and peace.

This revered and time-honored custom, established by the early fathers, is still worthy of preservation and continuance; and may be observed in a befitting manner by all the people of our commonwealth.

Given at the Executive Chamber in Augusta, this sixth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and twentieth.

HENRY B. CLEAVES.

By the Governor,

NICHOLAS FESSENDEN, Secretary of State.

Prof. R. B. Hall, leader of the American Cadet Band, was seen by a reporter in regard to the rumor that he contemplated severing his connection with that organization on account of ill health, and that he would return to Waterville. Mr. Hall was much annoyed at the statements made, and said that there was no foundation whatever for them. He is enjoying the best of health and had very recently signed a year's contract with the Cadet Band. He is much pleased with the progress made by the band since he assumed the leadership and is at a loss to understand how the rumor originated.—Portland Express.

Hon. S. W. Matthews, State labor commissioner, is now preparing blanks and laying out the coming season's work. While, last year, the report of the commissioner was largely upon statistics regarding labor, the amounts paid employes, their costs of living, etc., the present year will be devoted principally to statistics on manufacturers' work; the capital invested in the various lines of operation and other interesting and pertinent figures upon the subject. The manufacturers were treated at considerable length in the last report, as were the various industries in the State, but more in a general way, the statistics offered not going so deeply into detail.

At a Poverty Ball which took place at Winthrop, a few weeks ago, Miss Ivo Fairbanks was robbed of a purse containing $1 and some change. The money she had just received as a prize for best costume. When the purse was taken it was in Miss Fairbank's cloak in the cloak room, some distance from the main hall. Suspicion of the petty theft soon fell upon a young man who was present at the ball and was seen in the cloak room, where he had no business to be. Deputy Sheriff Wallace Berry took the matter in hand, a day or two ago, and believing that he had sufficient proof to act upon, went to the young man and demanded that he give up the purse. Thompson denied that he had it, but on the request being repeated, with considerable energy by Mr. Barry, the fellow put his hand into his pocket and produced it.

Vanceboro News.

Our correspondent writes; Mr. Charles F. Keefe has finished hauling and has about all of his pulp wood shipped from Vanceboro, that has yet two and a half million feet at Lambert and two millions and a half at Kingman to ship.

A few days ago a man residing here went before a Trial Justice and swore out a warrant against, or for, the suppression of the liquor traffic in Vanceboro. He now goes from place to place where there is any suspicion of liquor being sold, and hands his warrant from his pocket, shows it to the proprietors of the places he may visit, telling them if they don't give him a drink he will proceed at once to enforce the Maine liquor law. A good plan to get the drinks.

Mr. Fred Perkins, of Vanceboro, has a petition he is getting signers for, and when he gets enough names to suit him it will then be placed in the hands of the selectmen for the purpose of stopping all gambling and liquor selling in Vanceboro, if there be any, forever.

The lady members of the Catholic church at Vanceboro will hold a coffee party in the Rink on Wednesday evening, April 15. The best of order will be maintained during the evening. No drinking people will be allowed to annoy those wishing to spend a pleasant evening. Good music will be on hand. Those wishing to trip the light fantastic toe will have all possible opportunity.

The examination of candidates, which have been recently elected in the Maine Companies, N. G. S. M., will be held Tuesday, April 14, at the State House, before the State Examining Board, consisting of Gen. W. S. Choate, Col. L. H. Kendall, and Col. G. A. Philbrook. There are twelve candidates to appear before the board. They will first report at the office of the adjutant general, later to be examined in the judiciary room, both orally and by written test, upon the various military technicalities and discipline on which it is necessary that they be informed to fill their positions. Previous to the examination the board investigates the characters and standing of the officers, which, of course, is a necessary factor in the success of the candidate.

Mr. George Bass has completed the term for which he was engaged as instructor at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium and next Monday returns to the Maine State College to resume his studies. Mr. Bass will be in the box for the M. S. C. ball nine this year as last. His services were well appreciated at the gymnasium.

Alfred Jones & Sons have placed a big lobster boiler on the wharf near their wholesale market on Broad street and will boil lobsters fresh every day when the weather permits. Prices are much easier than they were a few weeks ago and when the river opens they will drop again. Jones' Sons are also building a smoke-house at the wholesale place and will in the future smoke all their fancy haddies and haddock.

General Passenger Agent C. M. Houghton of the Bangor & Aroostook railroad has returned from Houlton. He has made arrangements for several summer excursions. Friday, May 1, there will be an excursion to Ashland. About the first week in June there will be the usual spring excursion to Bangor and the last of June there will probably be an excursion to Bar Harbor. It is also expected that there will be an excursion to Moosehead Lake about the first of June.

Camden correspondence Rockland Courier-Gazette: Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. Thurston and daughter Marie, left Wednesday morning for Bangor where Mr. Thurston and W. S. Arwood will take charge of the Bangor Exchange hotel. Mr. Thurston made hosts of friends as host of the Bay View and if well wishes amount to anything business should boom at the Exchange. Messrs. Mr. Augustus Moseley, who has been Maine Central station agent at Etna for about twenty years, passed away Thursday morning. The cause of his death being a cancer. He had been confined to the house about six weeks and his death was not unexpected. He leaves a wife and three children one of whom is the wife of Dr. J. E. Barker, of Freeport. Mr. Moseley was a highly respected citizen and an efficient and faithful official. His death will be much regretted by many friends.

A system of baggage insurance has been introduced on the Boston & Maine and Maine Central roads which is very similar in its plan of operation to the accident insurance now sold at the ticket office. One can procure insurance policies on his baggage from any ticket agent on these roads, the price of the policy varying according to the value he places on his baggage. These policies cover all dangers of loss or damage to baggage while on the road or at hotels or private residences. The new scheme is proving very popular.

The owners of the saw mills and other property along the banks of the Penobscot river feel pleased with the way the ice is going out this spring. At one time last winter it was feared that there would be trouble and considerable damage to property when the ice came to go out but as it is nothing away instead of going out in a body as usual there is no danger now. For the last score or so years there would have been a flood in all probability. There has been a great deal of anchor ice in the river which generally causes the trouble.

Next Monday the Maine Central construction crew will commence to lay new steel on the new part of the double track between Detroit and East Newport. What has been laid up to the present for the accommodation of the work train is old steel and the track is now more than two-thirds laid between Newport and East Newport. There are now engaged in stone work and other parts of the construction a force of 75 men. The ballasting for the new part will be obtained at Hermon Centre. The new steel rails to be laid will be 70 pounders and the line will be in readiness for the June arrangement of trains. It is now talked that the work will be progressed another fall and winter from Detroit toward Burnham and thence on as rapidly as possible, working about the same crew as now.

Pullen's orchestra returned yesterday from Bucksport, after furnishing music for the 15th annual concert and ball of the Torrent Engine Company, held in Emery Hall, Wednesday. The hall was handsomely arranged with flags of every form and color of bunting from the large center piece to the outer walls and on the south side of the hall the drapering was of linen bows and Arcadia bells, while the stage was tastefully set with palms. After an hour of instrumental selections, an order of eighteen dances was begun with the march and circle. At the close of the ninth was cake and coffee were served in the gallery. General Passenger Agent F. E. Boothby has sent out the following letter to the Maine Central ticket agents regarding the use of mileage tickets: "In cases where persons attempt to ride on our 1,000 miles tickets, other than those in whose name such tickets are issued, the following decision of a California court may be of interest, as certainly what is good law in one State of our Union should be in another. A San Francisco court has affirmed the principle that falsely impersonating another person by attempting to ride over a railroad on a ticket issued in that person's name is a punishable offense. An insurance man named Collier bought at a scalping office a return ticket to Chicago, issued to one McPhee. He was ejected from the train after riding about 30 miles, was arrested for false representation, and after pleading guilty of misdemeanor to which the judge changed the charge, was fined $10. The offender got off very easily, but the finding will have a very important effect in future. Should parties then inquire of you in regard to the use of mileage tickets issued in another person's name, I trust you will not only tell them that our rules do not permit of this, but will cite the decision as above given."

Dexter Delegates Chosen

Our correspondent writes: A goodly number of good Republicans assembled in town hall Wednesday evening at the call for a Republican caucus. C. W. Carns was made chairman of the caucus and C. L. Tanner, secretary.

The following delegates were elected:

District Convention—F. D. Dearth, L. R. Waldron, Stanley Plummer, J. W. Crosby, Walter J. Gilbert.

State Convention—F. D. Dearth, Stanley Plummer, Arthur P. Abbott, F. A. Sprague, E. M. Tibbetts.

It was voted that each delegation have power to fill vacancies.

The matter of town committee came up for consideration and an entire new committee was elected as follows: L. R. Waldron, Stanley Plummer, F. D. Dearth, N. F. Roberts, C. C. Hatch, C. L. Tanner, L. W. Jose.

The committee organized with L. R. Waldron, chairman; F. D. Dearth, secretary and treasurer; N. F. Roberts, C. L. Tanner, Stanley Plummer, executive committee. After the election and the business of the meeting was over, speeches were called for and nearly every one present responded with a few remarks, and including several heretofore Democrats who announced themselves as heartily in favor of a change and stated that they had come to stay with us.

The sentiment was expressed that an energetic campaign and it is hoped that the count in September will show our vote brought back to its old time size and lost ground recovered.

A Pleasing Programme.

Pullen's orchestra has been engaged to furnish music upon the occasion of the production of "The New South" at the Opera House on April 15th and 16th, for the benefit of the Bangor Base Ball Association. The orchestra will give a concert for half hour previous to the performance and will also play between the acts. Prof. Pullen has arranged an especially fine programme for the occasion.

Millinery Opening.

A. Langdon Evans had a millinery opening at his store, No. 20 Main street, yesterday, and many ladies called to inspect and purchase. Mr. Evans carries a stock extensive in quantity and choice in quality and much admiration was expressed at the handsome display. The latest fashions in bonnets and hats for spring are to be found at this establishment and all will be sure to be satisfied after an inspection of the excellent stock. Mr. Evans will continue the opening to-day and to-morrow and many more will doubtless call.

MADOCAWANDO CLUB.

Enjoyable Social Session Upon the Occasion of the Last Supper of the Winter.

The members of the Madocawando Club had a most enjoyable social session Thursday evening as a "wind-up" of the suppers which have been a feature once a month during the winter, at the attractive quarters of the club on Main street. The members were out in full force to participate in the festivity.

At 9 o'clock the supper was served in the banquet room on the upper floor and the bounteous array of choice refreshments provided by Miss Kate Fitzgerald, caterer, received ample attention from all. After due justice had been done to this portion of the programme the members adjourned to the billiard and pool room and the parlor.

In the parlor a number of the members who are especially musical blessingly entertained the others with songs and piano selections and there was a general good time socially. The billiard, pool and card players interested themselves in loose games in the room above. It was a thoroughly enjoyable evening and a most successful close of the club suppers.

The committee in charge of the affair was composed of Mr. S. L. Strickland, Mr. L. W. Cutler and Mr. C. L. Holmes and the outcome of the occasion reflects much credit upon their management.

The club is composed of young professional and business men and has a membership of 75 at the present time. Its financial affairs are solid and its social features happy.

Long live the Madocawando.

AMUSEMENTS

"One of the Bravest."

Realism is said to be faithfully presented in the play "One of the Bravest" which will be produced at the Opera House next Saturday night. It runs the gamut of New York city life, and various characters, of which everyone has heard or read are truthfully duplicated. The slums and palaces have equal place, and are scenically reproduced realistically and correctly. The blowing up of an ocean steamer, a realistic fire scene in the tenement house district, with the fire department at work, the lowering at night and a Chinese opium joint are some of the scenes. An adequate company of dramatic and specialty artists interpret the play and no effort has been neglected to sustain the already well known reputation of the play they promote.

Sousa is Coming

The mere announcement that Sousa is coming will be sufficient to create a furore. Who can resist the swing and motion of rhythm of the delightful music, military and other wise, of Sousa, and his men? They are admired by the lovers of the classic as well for their playing of the music of the great masters as for the lighter style, which pleases the popular taste. Ah! the pleasing out of one's self in listening to the swing and cadence of Sousa's music and the magnetism of his own marches. Sousa has a mission and fills his niche in life most beautifully. He is appreciated wherever he chooses to go.

Sousa is coming.

"The New South"

The ever popular play "The New South" written by Clay M. Greene and Joseph Grismer will be the attraction at the Opera House on April 15th and 16th. The story deals in the main with an act passed in 1874 in the State of Georgia which gives the Governor of the State authority to lease convicts. In the play one of these characters is leased out and he becomes the central figure of the events that follow. The hero is Capt. Ford of the United States Army. It is replete with incident, adventure and romance and the story will be well told by a select company of players under the management of William A. Brady. Joseph Grismer and Phoebe Davies are among the principals. "The New South" will be given as a benefit for the Bangor Base Ball Association and ought to be liberally patronized. All who purchase tickets can feel assured that they will see a fine play and at the same time materially aid the base ball association. EASTER GIFT PARTY

At That Worthy Institution The King's Daughters Home.

The King's Daughters' Home on Middle street is well known as one of the best institutions in the city and its board of management is also of the most capable character. As a help to the endowment fund of the institution an "Easter Gift Party" was given at the Home Thursday evening from 7:30 to 11 and a large number of our people embraced the opportunity to visit it.

Many left substantial gifts of money while the grocers sent eatables of various kinds from their stores in generous quantities and the florists also remembered the institution by presenting floral decoration which added very much to the attractiveness of the Home. All the gifts are thoroughly appreciated by the manager of the Home.

The guests were pleasantly welcomed by the reception committee escorted about the Home to inspect its neat and commodious interior and served with delicious refreshments.

The general committee in charge of the affair was composed of Mrs. J. M. Blake, Mrs. A. H. Thaxter, Mrs. G. W. Barrows, Mrs. B. B. Thatcher and Mrs. L. Hayes.

The reception committee consisted of Mrs. L. F. Stearns, Mrs. C. B. Wood, Mrs. James Adams and Mrs. C. S. Pearl.

The ushers were Misses Anna Stearns and Louise Wood.

Misses Lena Wood and Alice Pearl acted as treasurers and received the money gifts.

Mrs. N. E. Bragg, Mrs. W. I. Miller, Mrs. W. L. Morse and Miss Giddings poured tea and the waitresses were Mrs. L. C. Adams and Misses Jordan, Pottle, Hennessey, Quimby, Rideout, Lord, Clark and Adams.

An inspection of the Home showed most attractive parlors and dining rooms arranged with great neatness and comfort and very pleasant sleeping rooms above. Throughout the Home everything is exceedingly well arranged and convenient and it is an institution in which the King's Daughters of Bangor can take just pride.

The matron, Miss Leavitt, is highly efficient in the performance of the duties of the position, in which she takes a great interest.

There are at present twenty who make their home at this institution and twenty more who take their meals there. It is very plain that the Home is being conducted as it should be and that it is in every way a success although that need hardly be said as it has been demonstrated long before this.

Newbold—Packard

Many Bangor friends of Rev. George T. Packard, formerly rector of St. John's Episcopal church in this city and wife, will be interested to learn of the marriage of their daughter, Miss Ethel Sprague Ken. Packard and William Romaine Newbold Ph. D., assistant professor of philosophy at the University of Pennsylvania, which occurred yesterday at the Church of the Holy Spirit in Jamaica Plain, Mass., Rev. J. T. Macenth being the officiating clergyman.

Base Ball Gossip

It will be good news to the Bangor public to hear that Roach has signed as catcher to officiate with sterling Ned Hayes. He is one of the best catchers in the business and can play an outfield as well, if necessary. In the Western League last year he stood third among the catchers, only 9 points of average separating him from No. 1. His fielding average was .961 and his batting .261. He was a member of the Toledo team. His capabilities are well known as first class, without taking into consideration the averages, and he as a needed acquisition to the team.

This completes the team with the exception of "Yale" Murphy, whom the management has not yet given up. Things thus far have come Bangor's way and the team cannot fail to be a strong one.

"FAIR OF DAYS."

Successful Entertainment at the Universalist Church.

At the Universalist church vestry Thursday afternoon and evening a "Fair of Days" was given by the Floral society with great success, both financially and socially. It was opened at 2 P. M. when a sale occurred at the booths arranged about the vestry. These booths represented the different days of the week that of Monday being supplied with washing materials, while the others had articles and arrangement peculiar to the other days.

They were well patronized the articles of sale being useful and ornamental and rapidly disposed of by the sellers who were ladies of the society. Promptly at 6 a fine supper was served and a large number partook of the delicacies and substantial dishes. At 8 the following entertainment was presented very successfully in each instance:

WHAT ALLEN MCCUE DID.

He Tried to Break a Man of the Habit of Frightening the Ladies.

"What's the matter, Jim? [illegible] two or three [illegible].

"I [illegible] any man in the crowd [illegible] can lick harder and shorter than any man or half-dozen in the state," responded Jim [illegible] "but I guess I'm broken out of it.

"You look as if you had been in some scrape," suggested one.

"Well, I tell the truth I did a [illegible] jammed around in it. I've been trying a ram of late for [illegible] ram was rusted a [illegible] and the [illegible] makes him a [illegible]. He knows when he's [illegible] tackle to. He won't [illegible] man he cannot he knows [illegible] [illegible] frazzled out over [illegible] he will butt [illegible] over [illegible] pasture.

The other morning this [illegible] lady friend of mine [illegible] across the [illegible] and through a picket fence and thought it was about time to cure him of the habit. I put on an old dress tied on [illegible] concealing a sledge hammer under my apron and [illegible] through the [illegible].

The minute the ram saw me he dropped all fine business he had on hand and came over to have some fun with me. He squared off about [illegible] and made a ram for me. When I got to one side to get a [illegible] swung at me with a sledge hammer he thought one [illegible] dress [illegible] and I fell down. He started to get on [illegible] that ram was [illegible] me, and I turned two somersaults before I hit the ground again. I did stand any chance at all. He just [illegible] lifting me in mind he got me over against the fence, and then he hit me. He jammed me down against the fence, then backed off and hit me another crack and then another and another till he thought he'd broken every rib in my body. Finally he jammed me clear through the bottom rail and I managed to crawl to the house.

"But I got even this morning. I had the horse taken green oak log dressed up in woman's clothes and set it swinging from the limb. That buck lost a horn the first time he hit it, and it wasn't long till the second went the same way. When I left it, he was mashing it half way every time it swung back at him, and I wouldn't wonder if he ain't worn down pretty close to the tail by this time."—San Francisco Post.

Playing at Being Born.

The strange sayings of children would fill a volume—for the matter of that, have filled one, I believe—while, as for the situations they adopt in their play they are imitated from the life dramas of their elders with that reckless disregard for consistency and development that often distinguishes the dramatist. A friend of mine who had been Christ missing in the nursery told me of a very funny example of this trait in "our little ones." A large party of children were sent up to the schoolroom one afternoon to amuse themselves, and after a time two ladies made an excursion from the drawing room to see how they were getting on. The youngsters were "playing," and the scene in which they were engaged was that of a fashionable wedding. Away from the group of performers stood in a corner a tiny girl of about 3. Thinking the child had been banished as too young to join in the game, one of the ladies went up to console with her and ask the reason of her solitude. "Oh, hush!" said the tiny mite, who could scarcely speak plainly. "I'm the baby, you know, and I'se wait on to be born."—London Sketch.

A Practical Joke.
